

Adalbert "Al" Tenorio

October 1, 1950 - February 17, 2024

Adalbert "Al" Tenorio embarked on his final journey surrounded by loved ones at Mercy New Life Hospice on February 17, 2024, following a gradual decline in health.

The journey of life began on October 1, 1950, as he entered the world. Born to Albert and Irene Tenorio (nee; Szatala) in Lorain, Ohio. He grew up as the eighth child of fifteen. Al spent his adolescence working alongside his father at the family store, La Popular located in South Lorain.

At age 19, Al selflessly joined the military. He became a Marine stationed at Camp Pendleton in San Diego, California and actively served until 1972. After serving he began his career as a truck driver.

In 1990 Pam invited Al over for lunch and he never left. Pam grounded Al in a way he had been searching for and they wed in 1991 at Christ United Methodist Church in Lorain. Together, they focused on blending their family, raising kids, coaching little league, girl scout meetings, and fun trips to Cedar Point. Al is survived by all his children, Adalbert Tenorio II, Gypsy Tenorio (Robert), Thor Tenorio (Kitty), Erik Ramos (Kayla), Anthony Ramos (Brittney), and Megan Tenorio.

Al's greatest treasures were the people who called him grandpa. He adored all fifteen of his grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Al enjoyed watching them at their sporting events, attending concerts and ceremonies, and attempting to gracefully lose at card games. He was a jack of all trades, master of some. Al was a lover of good times, customized cars, beaches, sweets, and long visits. The best gift he ever gave to anyone was making them feel welcomed and loved. Al was happiest when surrounded by family and friends telling them of his many adventures. His storytelling will be deeply missed.

Visitation will be held at Gluvna-Shimo-Hromada Funeral Chapel, 3224 Broadway, Lorain on Saturday from 10:00 to 11:00 AM with a service to immediately follow. Pastor Alyssa Rivera-Hodge will officiate. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the family and sent to P.O. Box 711 Amherst, OH 44001..
