

Mrs. Alice A. Zemanek

March 19, 1923 - December 5, 2022

Alice A. Zemanek (nee Arty), age 99 of Lorain, passed away peacefully at the Lorain Estates Senior Living Community on the afternoon of Monday December 5, 2022. Born in Lorain on March 19, 1923, she remained a life-long resident of the city; Alice was a graduate of Lorain High School.

Following her graduation, she was employed as a sales associate for the Smith and Gerhardt Department Store. She later worked as a riveter during the World War II war effort.

Alice was a long-time parishioner of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Lorain and was also a member of the Paduan Travelers.

In her free time she was an accomplished artisan of ceramics and enjoyed sharing many of the pieces she crafted with family and friends.

She is survived by sons David A. Zemanek (Cara) of DesMoines, Washington and John M. Zemanek (LoRie) of Amherst. Alice also leaves grandchildren Alysha, Stephen, and Lauren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Anthony M. Zemanek in 1985, father John Arty in 1970, mother Margaret E. Arty (nee Takacs) in 1995, brother John Arty, and sisters Margaret Kovach and Irene Davis.

Family visitation and funeral services will be conducted privately under the direction of the Gluvna-Shimo-Hromada Funeral Chapel; burial will follow in Calvary Cemetery.

Contributions in Alice's memory are encouraged to Catholic Charities of Cleveland – 7911 Detroit Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44102.
