“ Amy had many dear friends. She knew how to make each one feel special. She was always thoughtful and kind, Her smile was infectious. These last 8-9 years, she taught us all the power of hope, how to dig deep to find the strength to make hard decisions, that we should trust in our faith and relationship with God. She has inspired many women battling their own cancer. She was my oldest and dearest friend and the sister I got to choose. I miss her.
