“ Though my contact with my Aunt Dorothy was accomplished only at Christmas through cards and notes, I remember her as a kind, loving, patient and sincere person who was a positive force that touched many lives. Whether helping care for others, including my father, or through her activities in her church and community, Dorothy lead a life that we all can appreciate and learn from.

Among my fondest memories as a young child were the numerous gatherings of the Sandor clan at the Bremer household. I would guess that those family get-togethers would not have been nearly as successful without Dorothy and her loving husband, Bill, organizing the affairs. Those were also the times when I and my three brothers and sister got to know our cousins.

Having left Ohio shortly after graduation from college, I was never quite able to continue to cultivate those extended family relationships, a price I paid for taking career moves farther and farther from Ohio. I suppose that I stayed informed, if not connected, due to holiday notes from Dorothy and dutiful reports from my brother, Al and his wife, Jolene -- who bonded with and developed a long-term relationship with Dorothy and the entire Sandor and Bremer clans.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the death of Aunt Dorothy Bremer, but I hope that you will not be saddened by her passing. Rather, rejoice in an exemplary life well lived. Ed(ward) Sandor -- Olympia, WA
