“ Rest in peace Estelle...

I will miss seeing you stop by my office here at Mercy. No matter what was going on or how you felt, you always wore a smile.

I saw your village for the first time the year after Jack died and was amazed at the details...never forgot that sight. Each time you spoke of the boys it was always "my Johnny" or "my Joey"...never just their name. That spoke volumes on your love for them as "yours only".

May you again be joined with God and your family on heavens shores...

“ May your memory be Eternal, Estelle!!! Monday night bingo will not be the same without your smile. The Christmas village you had, will forever be a memory to those who came over to admire your work! It was indeed a shock, but when you took Gods hand he knew you were ready. You (and your smile) will be missed.
