“ We are saddened by the passing of our sister-in-law Jackie. We have many fond memories of our family get togethers over the years. She and my brother Peter shared many holidays together. We wish the best for her children, our niece Lisa and nephew Reed during this sad time. We will keep all in our prayers.

“ Jackie and her late husband Pete were close friends with my parents when I was growing up. Jackie was a gentle soul and always had a smile for my brothers and I when she visited our home. In later years when I would see her she would boast about Lisa and Reed and his musical accomplishments. She and Pete were great company for my parents and I have nothing but fond memories of them both. I send peace and comfort to Reed and Lisa at this time.
