

Joseph C Strobbe

May 14, 1954 - May 19, 2024

Joseph C. Strobbe, 70, of Amherst, passed away on Sunday May 19, 2024 with his family by his side at Mercy Health Lorain Hospital after a short illness.

He was born May 14, 1954 in East Moline, Illinois and had resided in the Amherst area since 1988.

Joe worked as a pipefitter at the Avon Lake Ford Assembly Plant retiring in 2021 after 35 years. After his retirement, he volunteered at the Second Harvest Food Bank in Lorain.

Joe was a wonderful husband and father but could also be a smart ass. He enjoyed reading, bicycling, and gardening. He could work a crossword puzzle with an ink pen and loved history especially World War I. He was a member of UAW Local 2000.

He is survived by his wife of 31 years Tracie Strobbe (nee Niemsky), children: Joshua Strobbe, Nichole Knipp (Carl) and Patrick Strobbe; many grandchildren and great grandchildren and his mother Marjorie Strobbe (nee Wortman). He was preceded in death by an infant daughter Morgan Simone Strobbe, father George Strobbe and brother David Strobbe.

Per Joe's' wishes, cremation will take place and there will be no funeral services.

Memorial contributions can be made to Second Harvest Food Bank, 5510 Baumhart Rd, Lorain, OH 44053.

Cremation services are being provided by the Gluvna-Shimo-Hromada Funeral Chapel, 3224 Broadway, Lorain. Online condolences can be made on www.gluvnashimohromada.com

Very saddened to hear of the passing of Joe, my father's cousin. We had a lovely dinner with Joe and Tracie last summer and I loved hearing his stories and fond memories of summers with my dad way back when. Sending Tracie and family comfort and warm hugs during this difficult time.
