“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Linda was one of the strongest women I knew and the smartest. She was so very proud of Evan and his family and loved spending time with them. My heart is broken, she was a wonderful friend for 50 plus years. I will miss you my friend.

“ Aunt Linda was the best. I remember fondly all the times we would visit and have meals and play games at Grandpa's house. Every time there would be pictures to be taken with each of us lining up. As we got older visiting became more special since we lived so far away but we still made it happen. We all think that time will be forever and it just slips right past us. Aunt Linda you will be so missed in this world of ours and our family unit. Loving you always! Bethany, Mark and Jaxson Leggins
