“ Aunt Lou,

You were a sweet soul and my mom talked with me often about you. How you laughed so hard together over the years. I always felt connected to you through her stories. I still dream about your cooking and remember asking my parents if I could just come live with you when I was a teen because I was obsessed with eating. You were always so elegantly put together from head to toe and had so much grace. You will forever be missed and forever in our hearts. love Shelly
