“ My deepest Sympathy to the Turton family. My brother (Tony aka Ron Campana) and I hung out with Gary when we lived across the street as kids. Mrs. Turton was so welcoming and kind when we would all hang out at their house or go swimming in their pool. So many wonderful memories. The world has lost a beautiful soul.

I went to Lorain High with Marcie and what a happy, smiling person. Even though she was two years older than me, she never ignored me. I want to let you know, Marcie, that I emulated you in my 88 years and was glad I did. That's how Jesus wants us to be. Enjoy your time in heaven with your beloved husband Jack and the rest of your family.

*Dear Jeannie, Donna, and family,
Sending our sympathy on the passing of your sweet mom. Marci and our mom, Mary Zabrecky, were such good friends. We always enjoyed her visits.
Dad and I always talked with her at Slovak Club Fish Fry Fridays. We know there was a grand reunion in heaven. Cherish the good memories.*
