

Roberta "Baba" Super

May 10, 2025

Roberta "Baba" Super (nee Kalassay) 87 of Lorain, passed away Saturday, May 10, 2025, surrounded by her daughters and grandchildren.

Baba was born in Lorain and graduated from Clearview High School in 1955. She was a member and an integral fiber of the Hungarian Reformed Church, taking on various roles including the church secretary, a consistory member for 15 years, and most commonly known as the church organist for 40 years. She was well known for her vocal talents, performing at church events, the International Festival, the Lorain Community Hospital Follies, many weddings, and other festive events.

After retirement she enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and close friends, reading, and doing crossword puzzles.

She leaves behind her children Laura Policz of Lorain, Christine Super of Lorain, Edward Super (Debbie) of North Port, FL, grandchildren Ashley Carrion (Jesse), Turners Station, KY, Jaime Andrews (Ian) of Cleveland, OH, Bryan Policz of Amherst, OH, Jessica Super of Lakewood, OH, and Sarah Super of Lorain, along with 10 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Edward Super of 25 years and parents Sidney and Stella Kalassay.

The family will hold an open house luncheon at her home to celebrate her life on Sunday June 29, 2025 from 2:00-5:00 pm.

“ Baba had such a contagious laugh! She was always happy playing the organ at the Hungarian Reformed Church. Even when Baba didn't walk well after her arthritis got worst, she managed to climb the back stairs in the church to the organ. Baba was a friend to my parents Don and Irene Smith.
