

Ronald S. Kardos Sr.

June 6, 1944 - January 10, 2023

Ronald S. Kardos, Sr. age 78, of Lorain, passed away at Mercy New Life Hospice during the early morning hours of Tuesday January 10, 2023.

Ron was born in Lorain, Ohio on June 6, 1944 and remained a life-long resident of the city. A 1962 graduate of Lorain High School, he was inducted into the United States Army in 1965 and fulfilled his duty as a Specialist 4 attached to the 1st Military Police Company in Vietnam. He was the recipient of the Vietnam Campaign Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal.

Ron had been employed as a production assistant for the Nordson Corporation for more than three decades prior to retirement. Previously, he had been employed by the Thew Division of Koehring Company.

He currently attended the Cornerstone Fellowship. He had also formerly attended the Church on the North Coast.

A avid fan of The Ohio State University football program, Ron enjoyed league bowling in his free time and spending time with his granddaughter Lainey.

He is survived by his wife of fifty-four years Mary (nee Edwards), sons Ronald S. Kardos, Jr. of Lorain, and Steven R. Kardos of Denedin, Florida. He also leaves granddaughter Lainey Kardos as well as sister Patricia Tylka (Richard) of Sheffield Village.

Ron was preceded in death by his mother Helen (nee Smolka) in 1998, father Steve in 2015, and brother Richard.

Details pertaining to a celebration of Ron's life will be announced once the date, time, and location have been finalized.

Memorial contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society, 5555 Frantz Rd, Dublin, OH 43017.

Tribute Wall

RO

“ Always remember when the family came to visit in Newfoundland, we always looked forward to the visit. Many memories there for sure. Condolences to all. Aunt Mary, i love you..Hugs

Roma - January 18, 2023 at 09:01 PM

JK

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with The Kardos family. Greatest sympathy, Billy, Jen, Nikkie, and Liam Kesterke

jennifer kesterke - January 18, 2023 at 07:24 PM