“ Roz was my Confirmation sponsor.
I grew up next door to them. Roz and Connie were like big sisters to me and Nina was like a mother to me.
We went to church at st. Johns every Sunday
I called Roz couple times from here in Europe where i have been living since 1995. It was great catching up.
She loved her family.
I am still using an afgan nina made for me years ago. She was a saint.
I remember the way your family celebrated Christmas Eve!
May they all be in glorytogether
Again.
May God comfort you at this time.
Love

*Ellen Kay, just as you thought of them as big sisters, you were like a little sister to our moms. Our Grandma & Mom thought so fondly of you too. Thank you for sharing your memories & condolences. We believe they are all together again too
*and we all still celebrate Christmas Eve together ❤️
Take Care
