“ Ruth Ann and I were friends a long time ago when we were teenagers. I joined the military and eventually moved out state and we didn't keep in contact. We had so much fun in our younger days when we worked as waitresses at Sutters restaurant and just hung out. I will remember her laughter and how she cared for and served others. My heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to her family and friends.

“ Ruth Ann was a wonderful, kind and caring person. She loved my daughter like her own and was a giver at heart. She loved her grandchild and so looked forward to her next one.

Her memory will live on in her children and grandchildren. What wonderful children she raised. Heaven received her home. Job well done Ruth!
