“ Vinny you were always a bright spot in my day when you came into the landfill or if I delivered a container to a job for you. Total chaos right!!! lol I always enjoyed joking around with you and even when you were having trouble with a trailer or something, you always took it in stride and joked around. Your work ethic and generosity were to be admired. We've had a lot of laughs over the years and I will truly miss you. Your infectious smile and humor is something that can never be replaced. I will keep your family in my prayers...
Godspeed my friend, until we meet again.

“ Vinney was a super kind man. I remember early spring I needed some work and he allowed me to pick up the trash and such while he and his crew were doing roofing jobs. He was generous on pay day, I actually had to give some back, as much as I needed the extra cash, I knew he was over paying me. One particular day, Vinney got in his truck, started it, threw one of his crews back pack out the window and yelled, I going to have dinner with my family and sped off. We were cracking up as the back pack sat there, in the street. He is going to be so missed. ❤️
